

Indian Ridge Ward

May 2021 – How Are You Doing?

Recently I had a short front porch interview with one of the amazing youth in our ward. We visited for a few minutes. I asked them how they were doing, how school is going, and how life is in general. They responded with thoughtful answers and then they surprised me. Rather than ending the conversation, they looked at me and asked “So how are you doing?” I was stunned. I didn’t see that coming. I’ve reflected on that moment for many weeks. That someone would sincerely ask me how I was doing meant a lot. (sidenote. I later found out this youth is not only kind but also a ferocious kickball player :)

Anyone can feel alone, even General Authorities. In a Church leadership meeting when Elder Edward Dube was feeling alone, he shared this tender moment: “Elder Jeffrey R. Holland spotted me. He came to me and said, ‘Edward, it is good to see you here.’ His love and embrace warmed me up and helped me to feel the spirit of belonging” (Elder Dube’s talk in the recent April General Conference).

Then shall the King say unto them... Come, ye blessed of my Father.

For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in...I was sick (or lonely), and ye visited (or texted or called) me.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. (Matthew 25)

Let’s be lavish with our love and caring. Let us continue to open our hearts and lift others.

Love, the Bishopric

Relief Society

We are so looking forward to seeing more of you in person at church on Sundays and in Relief Society! It will be wonderful.

“...wherever you are going and however you work through your challenges in getting there, I ask you to come unto the Savior, Jesus Christ, as the imperative first step in getting to your personal destination, in finding your individual happiness and strength, and in achieving your ultimate destiny and success.

All of that can be yours if the answer to the question “Where goest thou?” (Moses 4:15) is “Wherever you are, Lord.”

— Elder Jeffrey R. Holland

We are so grateful and excited that the time has come for us to once again meet together, in person, for Primary. Primary will be each Sunday, directly after Sacrament Meeting. We will meet in the Primary room for the second hour. We will not be separating for classes at this time, however, our teachers will be participating with us. Everyone is encouraged to wear masks. There will not be a Nursery provided at this time. We invite all Primary children to join us, beginning May 2nd.

Our Primary Board has experienced some changes. We want to sincerely thank those who have been released, for their service and dedication to the Primary children: Shelly Glauser, Annette Webster, Alan Harris, and Crystal Weight; we will miss you. We are very excited to begin Primary again, happy to be able to get to know each other again, and hear lessons together about the Gospel and our Heavenly Father.
